AI in HR - Best Practices & Sharing Strategies

This User Group is for HR professionals dedicated to exploring how artificial intelligence is transforming the world of work. This is a collaborative space to share insights, challenges, and success stories related to implementing AI tools in HR functions — from recruitment and onboarding to performance management and employee engagement.

Each session is open discussions to help members stay ahead of trends, avoid pitfalls, and develop responsible, people-centered AI strategies. This group is designed to support knowledge sharing and collective learning across organizations.

This group is led by volunteer members with guidance and support from the association's Member Relations team.

This group is for you if: You are a HR leader, people and culture manager, talent managers, and anyone involved in driving innovation in the workplace through AI. You have been using AI or implementing AI strategies at least at a Basic level in your organization.

This group is not for you if: You just want to learn about AI. Those attending will be expected to contribute to the conversation as described above.

Privacy and Respect
Our User Group operates with strict adherence to privacy standards. Member information is kept confidential and used only for defined group purposes. Self-identification is always voluntary. To join the group you will be asked to complete a statement of confidentiality as part of your application process.

Logistics
Online Sessions will be:

- Held quarterly, with dates and times announced in advance.
- Focused on topics of joint interest, chosen by the group.
- A mix of presentations, discussions, and networking opportunities

We will meet online via Zoom on a quarterly basis. Additionally, members of this Member Resource Group will have access to a private LinkedIn group for ongoing conversations between our online sessions.
